

EIA WELCOMES PUROLATOR INTO INTO NEW MULTITENANT FACILITY AT EIA CARGO VILLAGE

Edmonton International Airport (EIA)'s Cargo Village got busier in March 2013 with Purolator Courier moving their airport operation to the new 50,000 square feet multitenant air cargo warehouse and office facility. Purolator is the second major cargo tenant in the facility, following Cargojet, which moved into the Terracap-owned building in October 2012.

EIA CARGO MOVES MORE THAN BOXES

BISON RELOCATION PROGRAM

On March 21, thirty young bison were successfully transported from Elk Island National Park and loaded on EIA's new cargo apron en route to the Sakha Republic. This was the 3rd installment of the Bison Relocation Program, a joint effort between the Government of Canada and Russia to establish a population of bison in the Sakha Republic.
